BHARATNATYAM

‘Aadu Pambe’ is a dance of the mystical snake in the sands of the Arabian Desert. This Bharatanatyam item has been performed in the Al Badayer desert of Dubai. Here, the dancers depict the myriad roles of the supernatural snake: as the cobra adorning Lord Shiva’s head, as the bangles of Shiva’s consort Parvati, as the poisonous dweller of the underworld, and as the protector of Krishna. All this while the snake is coaxed to ‘uncoil and dance’.

GERMAN PLAY

'Little Red Riding Hood' is a European fairy tale about a young girl and a sly wolf.

The story comes from a folktale that revolves around a predator, artful and strong, who pretends to be someone he is not, and a little girl who is trusting. The moral of the story is that people are not always who they appear to be, and strangers are not to be trusted.

The performers are:

Narrator 1 - Aanya Tushar Thakkar
Narrator 2 - Anahita Jaiswal
Little Red Riding hood - Deeva Baldwa
Mother - Ananya Rathore
Wolf - Abhishree Rai
Grandmother - Krisha Sachdeva
Woodsman - Rabia Malhotra

Teacher in-charge:

Ms. Prachi Pandey
